

Name: _____

Date: _____

Then and Than Commonly Confused Words Worksheet

The word (then) relates to time.

The word (than) is used to introduce a comparison.

Directions: Circle the confusing word (then or than) that best completes each sentence.

Example A: He is taller (then / than) his older brother.

Answer: than

1. Are you faster (then / than) the rest of the players?
2. I am shorter (then / than) you.
3. He went to the dance, (then / than) he went to the movies.
4. I will brush my hair and (then / than) organize my bed.
5. We went fishing and (then / than) went to eat lunch.
6. That football player is stronger (then / than) the other one.
7. You want to win more (then / than) the other competitor.
8. I saw a bird, (then / than) I saw a plane.
9. Do you think she is smarter (then / than) you?

Direction: Write a sentence with the words then and than.

10. then- _____

11. than- _____