

Warm Up to Onomatopoeia!

Remember: an onomatopoeia is a word formed by the sound something makes.

I. Circle the Onomatopoeia

Circle the onomatopoeia in each sentence.

Our feet squished in the mud.

There was a steady chomp-chomp as the horses ate their hay.

We heard a loud meow at the back door.

The funny horn on the bicycle went beep-beep.

There was a loud bang when the door slammed shut.

II. Fill in the Blank

Complete the sentence with an onomatopoeia.

The black dog _____
at the stranger.

The apple went _____ when it landed on the ground.

As the storm approached, they heard the thunder _____.

In the garden the insects _____
around the flowers.

We heard the leaves _____
as we walked through the forest.

III. Write an Onomatopoeia

Use the idea below to write a sentence using an onomatopoeia.

1. a spooky house

2. a happy pig

3. a person with a cold
